Thank you for your letter of 3 October 1950. It is not considered at all presumptuous for a consultant to write to me.

[redacted] has told me that you expect to be in Washington in October. I have asked him to make arrangements to see you at that time and to discuss the problem that you raise. If you feel, after those conversations, that there are matters that should be brought to my personal attention, please let me know.

The Agency appreciates the time and effort that the consultants spend on our program. We know that such services are rendered with considerable personal inconvenience and we are grateful for your help.

Sincerely yours,
